The G

Radio Controlled Watches

Tough tested plus technology: "THE G" are the radio-controlled models of the G-SHOCK series – for those who expect a lot from their watch. All watches in the "THE G" series keep the exact time permanently. Solar cells integrated into the watch face provide the power supply. These watches offer reliability, ruggedness, and independence, as well as a host of useful functions such as world time, stop watch, alarms, and many more.
